This catalog represents a flexible program of the current educational plans, offerings, and requirements which may be altered from time to time to carry out the purposes and objectives of the University. The provisions of this catalog do not constitute an offer for a contract which may be accepted by students through registration and enrollment in the University. The University reserves the right to change any provision, offering or requirements at any time within the student's period of study at the University. The University further reserves the right to require a student to withdraw from the University for cause at any time.

EQUAL ACCESS -

LSUS assures equal opportunity for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age sexual orientation, disability, marital status, or veterans' status in the admission to, participation in, or employment in its programs and activities.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY -

The student is personally responsible for completing all requirements established by the University, college and department for the degree chosen. The student assumes responsibility for being apprised of all such requirement, for scheduling classes that are not in conflict with part-time or full-time employment, and for being familiar with all regulations within this General Catalog.

This online catalog is for informational purposes only and is subject to modification.
Final authority resides in the printed version of the catalog.
