Description:

This catalog represents a flexible program of the current educational plans, offerings, and requirements which may be altered from time to time to carry out the purposes and objectives of the University. The provisions of this catalog do not constitute an offer for a contract which may be accepted by students through registration and enrollment in the University. The University reserves the right to change any provision, offering or requirements at any time within the student=s period of study at the University. The University further reserves the right to require a student to withdraw from the University for cause at any time.

EQUAL ACCESS:

Louisiana State University in Shreveport assures equal opportunity for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, or veterans' status in the admission to, participation in, or employment in its programs and activities.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY:

The student is personally responsible for completing all requirements established by the University, college and department for the degree chosen. The student assumes responsibility for being apprised of all such requirements, for scheduling classes that are not in conflict with part-time or full-time employment, and for being familiar with all regulations within this General Catalog.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICIES:

In compliance with the Bylaws and Regulations of the LSU Board of Supervisors (Chapter VII: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, pp.35-42), Permanent Memorandum 64: Intellectual Property – Distribution of Royalties and Other Matters and Policy Statement 68: University Intellectual Property Rights in Sponsored Projects clearly establish the university's policies regarding intellectual property. Copies of these documents may be obtained through the Office of Academic Affairs.
